Final Note by the Home Minister.

Subject.— Proposal to extend the term of appointment of Sri J.N. Nanda, Adviser for Railways to Government.

Sri J.N. Nanda was appointed as Adviser for Railways to Government and Ex-officio Secretary to Government, Railway Department on the following terms:-

1) Term of appointment .. One year from 26th January 1948;

2) An honorarium of Rs.25,000/- free of Income-tax for a period of one year, to be paid in monthly or such other instalments as Sri Nanda may desire;

3) Sri Nanda is also permitted to continue membership of the Railway Enquiry Committee of the Government of India for a period between 3 and 4 months during the year;

4) He will be given free quarters and the use of a Government Car during his stay in the State; and

5) Travelling Allowance and other matters are according to the general provisions of the Mysore Service Regulations.

Sri Nanda assumed the charge of his office on 26th January 1948 and the term of his appointment expired on 26th January 1949 if the period of 12 months is taken as the basis.

Sri Nanda left Mysore to attend the Railway Enquiry Committee on the 14th March 1948 and resumed his duty in the State on the 27th November 1948. He was absent from Mysore for a total period of 8 months and 12 days as against a period of 3 to 4 months stipulated under term 3 above. The effective period of service put in by him is therefore only 5 months 18 days instead of 8 to 9 months expected. During his stay here, he has drawn his pay at the rate of Rs.3,125/ per month for 3 months and 23 days (till the end of January 1949). Accordingly, to complete the term of 8 months agreed to by him, Sri J.N. Nanda has to serve this Government till the 7th June 1949. Sri Nanda is agreeable to this arrangement.

The question of extending the term of appointment of Sri J.N. Nanda was considered at a meeting of the Council held on 2nd April 1949 when the following resolution was recorded:-

"Sri J.N. Nanda's services as Adviser for Railways to Government, may be extended by one year from 7th June 1949 on the same terms as before."

I solicit the gracious approval of His Highness to the above resolution of the Council.

Bangalore,
8th April 1949.

Submitted to His Highness.

I submit herewith, for the gracious approval of His Highness, a Final Note by the Home Minister on the proposal to extend the term of appointment of Sri J.N. Nanda, Adviser for Railways to Government, by one year from 7th June 1949 on the same terms as before.
